PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Susan Sather

Skate Night is this Saturday, April 17, at SkateQuest in Reston. Annie Nasr is the event coordinator; we need to find a new coordinator for next year.

Susan recognized and thanked the following volunteers:

Jennifer Arakelian, Sandy Angel, Alexis Shield, and Marina Matthes for cleaning and organizing the PTA Office

Annie Nasr for organizing Skate Night

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Olivia Toatley

We have begun the final quarter of the school year. Plans are underway for the 5th grade to hold a Medieval Festival this year. The 6th grade is planning for STARS.

Langston Hughes Middle School (LHMS) has invited our 6th grade students to attend "Rising Stars", a program to help transition 6th grade students to middle school. Last year the program was offered to Dogwood students; this year it is being offered to all LHMS feeder schools.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Pam Delillio

Mini grant reimbursement requests should be submitted by May 15th.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

6th Grade Party

Jo Brown

Planning for the 6th Grade Party continues. We are still waiting for final word on the last day of school.

Talent Share

Raba Letteri

Talent Share is scheduled for April 30th.

Skate Night

Annie Nasr

Skate Night is this Saturday, April 17, at SkateQuest in Reston.

NEW BUSINESS

Teacher Appreciation Week

We'd like to coordinate school-wide, daily themes for Teacher Appreciation Week. Jennifer Arakelian will contact teachers to get a list of room parents, develop the daily themes, and send out a Tuesday Folder Flyer and include the information in the weekly e-News.
